

How to Avoid Critical Financial Errors Before, During and After Divorce

A Workshop for Couples and Individuals Facing Divorce

A significant part of most divorce settlements involve financial issues. Given the challenges most couples face in today's economic environment, more than ever, it's critical to address the financial needs, goals and objectives of the family as efficient and cost effective as possible.

WORKSHOP LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

- Provide information to help avoid costly financial mistakes in a divorce
- Review alternatives that allow those facing divorce to have more control of the outcome
- Provide information and answers to questions related to financial and tax issues unique to divorce

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

- Individuals and couples facing divorce
- Those who need answers to financial issues related to divorce
- Those who want to understand the potential long-term financial consequences of their divorce

OUTLINE OF TOPICS:

- What to do before you begin the divorce process
- What is the best divorce process for you
- Gathering the data and records you will need
- Community and separate property
- Sale of the personal residence
- Retirement plans
- Child support
- Spousal support
- Income tax considerations
- Credit cards and other debt
- Budgeting and finances
- Insurance considerations
- Estate planning issues
- Dividing and transferring property
- Social Security benefits
- Planning for your financial future
- How to select divorce professionals

PRESENTERS:

Stephanie Maloney, CFP™, Certified Divorce Financial Analyst™
Jerry Cohen, CPA/PFS, CFF, ChFC, Certified Divorce Financial Analyst™

2009 DATES:	August 8 September 19 October 24 November 14
TIME:	9:00 am - noon
LOCATION:	Braemar Country Club 4001 Reseda Boulevard Tarzana, CA 91357
COST:	$35

To register or find out more info, visit our website at: fs4divorce.com, or call us at: 818-706-2998.